ABOUT

John Paul brings over twenty years of legal experience representing clients in natural gas and liquids pipeline proceedings at the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Department of Energy, and the federal appellate courts. Clients count on John Paul to provide a quick, efficient, and thorough analyses of FERC-related matters. John Paul believes in an interactive approach, working individually with each client, to resolve the issues presented.

EXPERIENCE

Prior to forming Floom Energy Law in February 2019, John Paul was a partner with the law firm of Edwards & Floom, LLP. Prior to that experience John Paul also was an associate with the law firms of Edwards & Associates and GKRSE. From November 1999 to May 2001, John Paul was an attorney-advisor for several Administrative Law Judges at the FERC.

During his over twenty years in the practice of law, John Paul has represented clients in several FERC natural gas rate proceedings, including recently settled proceedings (Trailblazer Pipeline Company, Docket No. RP18-922, Northern Natural Gas Company, Docket Nos. RP19-59 and RP19-1353), as well as fully litigated proceedings (Kern River Gas Transmission Company, Docket No. RP04-274, El Paso Natural Gas Company, Docket Nos. RP05-422, RP08-426, and RP10-1398).
