

About Us

Floom Energy Law PLLC is a boutique law firm fueled by experience. We focus primarily on issues related to natural gas, oil, and liquids pipelines. We appear in proceedings before the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Department of Energy, and federal appellate courts. Located in the Washington, D.C. area, the Firm has access to various federal agencies, courts, and resources to serve our clients' interests.

After twenty years of practicing as an energy lawyer, John Paul Floom established the Firm to provide clients with a tailored strategy to achieve their objectives. Clients of all sizes count on us for innovative solutions and practical recommendations based on our extensive legal experience in the energy field. The boutique size and structure allow us to offer first-rate legal advice, while ensuring cost-effective results based on a thorough understanding of our clients and their legal needs.

The regulatory landscape is constantly changing, and you need a law firm that not only reacts to these changes, but also anticipates them. Floom Energy Law PLLC brings extensive industry knowledge and legal expertise to guide you through the complexities of energy law.

Services

Our experience within the industry allows us to effectively counsel our clients regarding oil and natural gas matters in relation to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Department of Energy, and federal appellate courts. We advise producers, pipeline companies, shippers, and others with interests regarding regulated energy companies.

Pipeline Monitoring

- On a daily basis, review and analysis of pipeline filings submitted to FERC
- Recommendation to client related to filing and likely outcome at FERC

Counseling & Litigation

- Cost-of-service filings and ratemaking issues
- Pipeline tariff filings related to the terms and conditions of service on a particular pipeline
- Rulemaking proceedings
- Market-based rate filings and issues
- Waiver requests for complex natural gas capacity release transactions
- Pipeline certificate filings

Compliance

We routinely assist clients with the development and presentation of compliance trainings and seminars, covering a range of topics, such as:

- FERC standards of conduct
- Regulatory and statutory requirements
- Environmental compliance
